

Services for Lawyers

We understand your practice!

Barnes Roffe are proud to have developed a specialist service for lawyers. We recognise that law firms require enhanced industry specific knowledge from their accountants, whether to deal with general accountancy work or to ensure that the stringent compliance requirements are met.

We have set up specialist teams dealing with legal practices. Each member of the team attends regular update courses to ensure that they have detailed knowledge of the SRA Accounts Rules and can assist you with these.

We have also developed a management solution called 'The Six Laws', specifically designed to accommodate all the requirements of your practice, as well as offer you the structure, support and guidance you need.
